

Visual Scavenger Hunt

Without disturbing others, can you find...

- 2 different pipe organs
- Red galeros, hung after the deaths of former cardinals... kind of like retiring a hockey jersey
- 3 different depictions of Mary's mom, St. Anne: patroness of Detroit
- 5 stone mountains: rocks of our faith
- A cedarwood ceiling, recalling the wood of the Jerusalem temple built by Solomon
- A chronological "error" in the order of the Bible stories in the windows (Why, do you think?)
- 3 large vessels containing the Holy Oils created here for every parish in the Archdiocese each Holy Thursday morning
- A French-stone rendering of The Transfiguration – plus St. Paul (Why him, do you think?)
- A tiny enthroned Jesus guarding our comings and goings
- An upside-down W in the window scriptures
- Lit glass cubes holding relics of St. Theophilus, St. Pacifica, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, St. Katharine Drexel, and St. Faustina Kowalski
- Mary stomping on the devil, as foretold in Genesis 3:15
- Michigan's state flower and a prolific Michigan crop on the same artwork
- One of your patron saints or a saint with one of your names
- St. Peter receiving the Keys to the Kingdom
- Room for your own stained glass portrait in the saint galleries
- The ambo: a word derived from the Greek "amabainein" which means "to go up"
- The burning candle which announces Jesus' presence in the "tent" or tabernacle.
- The cathedra, an official sign of the Archbishop's teaching office and link to the seat of St. Peter
- The chair used by St. John Paul the Great when he visited Detroit
- The waxy column that reminds us of the pillar of fire that led God's people out of slavery and into new life
- The Papal flag
- Cherubs in our round ("rose") window (Why do you think it's called a rose when it's round?)
- A monstrance made in Poland and given to us by St. John Paul the Great
- A Jesse Tree, named from Isaiah 11:1: "A shoot shall come out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots."
- A Pewabic Pottery tile showing the Archbishop's personal coat of arms
- 2 soundproof reconciliation rooms – with Mary and her mama warmly welcoming the humble
