Visual Scavenger Hunt

Without disturbing others, can you find…

- ☐ 2 different pipe organs
- ☐ Red galeros, hung after the deaths of former cardinals… kind of like retiring a hockey jersey
- ☐ 3 different depictions of Mary's mom, St. Anne: patroness of Detroit
- ☐ At least 5 large white stone "mountains": rocks of our faith
- ☐ A cedarwood ceiling, recalling the wood of the Jerusalem temple built by Solomon
- ☐ A chronological "error" in the order of the Bible stories in the windows (Why, do you think?)
- ☐ 3 large vessels containing the Holy Oils created here for every parish in the Archdiocese each Holy Thursday
- ☐ A French-stone rendering of The Transfiguration scene – plus St. Paul (Why him, do you think?)
- ☐ A tiny enthroned Jesus guarding our comings and goings
- ☐ An upside-down W in the window scriptures (Hint: Jesus' first public miracle)
- ☐ Lit glass cubes holding relics of St. Theophilus, St. Pacifica, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, St. Katharine Drexel, and St. Faustina Kowalska
- ☐ Mary stomping on the devil, as foretold in Genesis 3:15
- ☐ Michigan's state flower and a prolific Michigan crop on the same artwork
- ☐ One of your patron saints or a saint with one of your names
- ☐ St. Peter receiving the Keys to the Kingdom
- ☐ Room for your own stained-glass portrait in the saint galleries
- ☐ The ambo: a word derived from the Greek "amabainein" which means "to go up"
- ☐ The burning candle which announces Jesus' presence in the "tent" or tabernacle.
- ☐ The cathedra, an official sign of the Archbishop's teaching office and link to the seat of St. Peter
- ☐ The chair used by St. John Paul the Great when he visited Detroit
- ☐ The waxy column that reminds us of the pillar of fire that led God's people out of slavery and into new life
- ☐ The Papal flag
- ☐ Cherubs in our round ("rose") window (Why do you think it's called a rose when it's round?)
- ☐ A Jesse Tree, named from Isaiah 11:1: "A shoot shall come out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots."
- ☐ A Pewabic Pottery tile showing the Archbishop's personal coat of arms
